

The End of the National Health Service?

International consequences of the British health care reforms

An open seminar

Wednesday 21 September 2011, 14:00 – 18:00

Lecture theatre, Domus & Medicus, Pilestredet Park 7, Oslo

Contributors:

Julian Tudor Hart, former general practitioner, author of The Inverse Care Law (1971) and The political economy of health care. Where the NHS came from and where it could lead (2010)

Sally Sheard, senior lecturer in history, University of Liverpool and author of The Nation's Doctor: The role of the Chief Medical Officer, 1855 – 1998 (2005) and Agent of change: Brian Abel-Smith and the shaping of global social welfare (2011)

Allyson Pollock, professor of international health care research, University of London and author of NHS Plc: The Privatisation of Our Health Care (2004)

Steinar Westin, professor of social medicine, Norwegian University of Science and Technology

Bjørn Guldvog, assistant director, The Norwegian Directorate of Health

Charlotte Haug, editor-in-chief, The Journal of the Norwegian Medical Association

Magne Nylenna, director, The Norwegian Knowledge Centre for the Health Services

Jointly arranged by

The Norwegian Medical Society

The Norwegian Knowledge Centre for the Health Services

The Norwegian Directorate of Health